Try bowling?

We've got so much going on but we have to remember our most special members! Bowling is what we are all about.

There are a few of you who took away bowling membership forms. It is impossible to resist playing bowls once you have the taste!

Do you want my help to organise coaching or work out the best day for you to play? Please phone me Noelene 0424 625 267.

Dad's army

No, it's not just a rumour – Dad's army is alive and well and reporting for duty at The Beecroft Club every Friday morning, from 8 am till smoko.

Over many years the men of Dad's army have given up their Friday mornings to do the gardening, maintenance and general handy-man jobs that the club has needed.

BIAS caught a few of them at work and you can see from their faces that it isn't just a chore.

Like so many volunteer jobs, there is as much to be gained in satisfaction and social interaction, as there is in getting the job done. If anyone would like to join the gentlemen (and ladies) of Dad's army please turn up on Friday mornings, or phone for more information. 0424 625 267.

Book Club

Tuesday 12 February
7-9 pm

The local community is looking for a new book club. A group is getting together on Tuesday 12 February to discuss options. Some may be looking for a daytime meeting, others may want an evening with a glass of wine. So the Beecroft Club would be perfect.

Please come along and let us know what you are looking for in a local book club
