Privacy

Your Club respects the privacy of its members and only collects personal information

- for legal reasons imposed by Government authorities
- in the case of bowling members, for reasons imposed by the governing bowling associations
- with members' consent, to keep members informed of services provided by the Club and of coming Club functions, and to allow members to contact each other on Club matters

If you do not want information to be sent to you about Club services and proposed activities, or do not want other members to contact you, we invite you to place your refusal in writing, addressed to the honorary secretary of the club.

Responsible service of alcohol and Responsible conduct of gambling

Your Club espouses the principles of responsible service of alcohol and responsible conduct of gambling. Regular bar employees have completed appropriate qualifications to provide you the best service in that regard.

Your Club also has a gambling self-exclusion scheme which it operates in conjunction with the gambling counseling services of the Christian Community Aid Service at West Ryde. See your bar staff or the large notice at the poker machines for details.
